Masses at 8, 9 and 11 o'clock on Sun-days. High mass at 11 o'clock, with sermon. Sunday school at 9:30. Vespers and Benediction at 7:30 p. m. Week-day mass at 7:30 a. m. Mass is celebrated Sundays at St. Patrick's church, Fourth South, between Fourth and Fifth West, at 10 o'clock on Sunday. Meetings of cathedral parish during the month: Promoters of the Sacred Heart League, the last Sunday of each month; the Altar society every first Monday of the month; St. Ann's Society every Monday at 2 o'clock. Choir rehearsal for cathedral choir, Friday night at 8 o'clock; Junior choir, Saturday at 8:30; and St. Cecilia chorus every Sunday at 9:30.

CATHEDRAL NOTES

Masses were celebrated at 7, 8 and 9 o'clock. At 11 o'clock, solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Scanlan, assisted by the Very Rev. Father Kieley, deacon; the Rev. Father Daniel Kieley, secretary; the Rev. Father W. K. Ryan, master of ceremonies; and Walter McCann, assistant master of ceremonies.

The sermon of the day was by the Rev. Father W. K. Ryan, who took for his subject "The Nativity of Christ." The speaker was eloquent in his vivid description of the birth of Christ in the lowly stable at Bethlehem.

The chief feature of the musical service was the artistic harp accompaniment, during the entire mass, by Mrs. Edward McGuffin.

Rev. D. Slattery will hold services in Seaford on New Year's day.

Father Havlicka was in Sunnyside on Christmas day.

Rev. William Flynn said three masses on Christmas day at Tooele for the accommodation of the many Catholics in the smaller city.

The regular monthly meeting of the Altar society will be held Tuesday, January 3, at 2 o'clock, instead of on Monday.

The officers of the Altar society wish to thank the following ladies for their beautiful floral offerings for Christmas: The Mesdames L. B. McCormick, M. R. Salisbury, Arthur Bird, W. S. McCormick, J. B. Congriff, W. E. Effe, Thomas Kearns, J. C. Dwyer, A. Fred Wey, Alice S. Little and J. C. Lynch.

Artistic indeed were the decorations of the altars for the beautiful feast of Christmas. The fair flowers of the season were used profusely on all the altars, but especially attractive was the high altar, where the candles, arranged to represent two stars of Bethlehem, added much to its attractiveness. The ladies deserving credit for the decorations are the Mesdames O'Connor, Morrison and Bird.

The intention of the league of the Sacred Heart for the month of January is for the spread of the apostolicity among men.

NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS.

Many good resolutions were made a year ago, only to be broken when the first ray of prosperity dawned. Many men, who then as now, were out of work, resolved to save their money and be prepared for future emergency. Those who followed this resolution are now happy. Their resolution has proven a source of satisfaction. The reverse is true of all who broke their resolution. Begin again and resolve to save something so as to be ready for "hard times."

Do not speculate in investing. Safety is the watchword in buying securities. The A. B. C. of the investment situation is this: Save your money and safely invest it. Like the hoodlumper who is always secure both as to principal and interest, the investor should start out with the idea that he wants a definite return on his money. Good security and sure returns are sure to win the confidence of the public. For twenty-five years the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., which has clients all over the world, has made good its promise, by giving ample security and a definite return on all money invested. XTMAS AT KEARNS ST. ANN'S ORPHANAGE.

Santa Claus in his mission of love dealt bountifully with all the inmates of St. Ann's. Through the generosity of Mrs. Thomas Kearns, some useful and substantial gifts were received. All the boys received sweaters, candies, fruits and toys. The girls were supplied with ribbons, dolls and all kinds of edibles.

Christmas masses were celebrated at 7 and 8 o'clock. A fine musical program was rendered by the children of St. Ann's assisted by a male quartet. G. Messinger, L. Isken, M. Inevdorff and M. Schindler.

The program at 7 o'clock: "Softly the Night Sleepeth," "O Holy Night," "Silent Night." At 8 o'clock: "Holy Night," "Dear Santa Claus," "The Babe of Bethlehem," "Adeste Fideles," and a selection by the quartet.

THOUGHTS IN SORROW.

In every soul there is a secret chamber.

In every life there is an untold tale.

In every heart there is a covered picture.

That human hands can never dare unveil.

In every heart there is a line deep graven.

Whose meaning is to dearest friends unknown.

In every character there is a strong hold.

The key of which lies in God's hands alone.

In every soul there is a chord of feeling.

Too subtle to be seen or understood.

Which vibrates with a certain sad discordance.

Swept carelessly by heedless hand or rude.

In every heart there is an unrecruited wound.

Whose depth is fathomless by love or hate.

In every soul there is a sanctuary.

Which neither friend nor foe can violate.

So there lies hid in every human bosom

An unknown world of evil and of good.

And all of us at times, each in our measure.

Misunderstand and are misunderstood.

For since the golden days of sinless Eden.

No one has fully read another's soul.

He only searches all things to their center.

Whose calm, clear eye surveys and guides the world.

Lorain, O. Bleeding Heart.

CHRISTMAS NORTH AND SOUTH.

Washington celebrates Christmas in the northern style, a la New England—that is to say, by simply closing the stores and keeping quiet—but Alexandria, Va., celebrates in good old southern style, with rockets, Roman candles, firecrackers, torpedoes, noise and general reveling hilarity.

Northward people often wonder why Christmas like the Fourth of July and the latter holiday like Christmas, but the reason is not far to seek. The southern Christmas is the Christmas of old Merrie England, Germany and France before the reformation. According to the view of all good orthodox Christians of that period, the birth of Christ was an event such as to cause delight and general rejoicing among men, and consequently they celebrated the Lord's birthday with the proper demonstrations of rejoicing. The Puritans were inclined to frown down religion of this sort, so that when America was settled by Cavalier and Puritan each celebrated the day in his own way.—Washington Post.

BINGHAM, UTAH.

There were three masses at Holy Rosary church on Christmas day. The first was at 7 a. m., and at this mass there were a great many communicants. The next mass was at 8 and the high mass at 10 a. m. The choir, under the direction of Mr. Fitzgerald, made a deep impression on the large congregation. It was their first attempt at a high mass, and considering the shortness of the time they had to prepare, each member deserves the highest credit for the excellent rendering of the various parts. Mr. Kordeck presided at the organ. Mr. Fitzgerald completed his choir, Master Kearns Hyland, were the violinists, and the main portion of the choir consisted of Mrs. Pat Hyland, Mrs. Burns, Mrs. Joe Hyland, Mrs. John Hyland, Mrs. Bluthner, Miss Adderley, Miss Bendor, Miss K. Hyland, the Misses K. M. and A. Steppin, Miss Myrtle Swann, Miss M. Byrne, Miss K. McDonald, Judge Celler, Messrs. Felix McDonald, Dent, O'Donnell, Sloan, Kornick, Kean and Sorenson. For the past fortnight the choir has been rehearsing in preparation for this Christmas service.

The altars were tastefully decorated by Mrs. F. Quinn, Mrs. Pat Hyland, Judge Celler and Edward Kraemer.

Mayor Thomas Quillan spent his Christmas in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hays were visitors to Salt Lake Christmas day.

C. Green spent Christmas with his brothers in Salt Lake.

Mrs. J. J. Dwyer returned from her father's home to Bingham for the Christmas.

John Sinder spent Christmas with his family in Salt Lake.

The residence for the priest is just completed and he will be able to take residence there before the end of the year.

Mrs. Maguire spent her Christmas day with friends in Salt Lake.

Miss Bluthner is attending the teachers' association in Salt Lake.

CHEYENNE, WYO.

Cheyenne is very sorry to lose one of her most prominent citizens, and both church and municipal circles will lose a most valued acquisition in the leaving of Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Pfaff.

Dr. and Mrs. Pfaff are to live, after the first of the year.

There is very little going in the Magic city just now, as everyone is looking forward and planning for the holidays, when college girls and boys will be here for the merry season of Christmas.

Rt. Rev. Bishop J. J. Keane has returned from his trip to the east.

A. G. Lagenbach, manager of the electric light company, left Tuesday for his home in Mayville, Wis., to spend Christmas, and then on the 28th he became a "benedict" by being married in holy matrimony to Miss Claire Marie Pick, a charming and highly accomplished young lady. Mr. Lagenbach is a Knight of Columbus, and his many friends wish him much joy and happiness in his wedded life.

Miss Mary Sheehan has returned home after a very successful season of millinery work in Texas.

The entertainment at the convent was very successful in every way, and the good sisters realized quite a sum, while all present went away with the feeling of having spent a very pleasant evening.

Miss Mayme Cronin has left Cheyenne to live in Denver, where she has accepted a position in one of the banks in that city.

LITTLE KNOWN REPUBLICS.

Within the domain of the United States on the North American continent there have been divers independent republics, says Mary W. Hazeltine in Harper's Magazine, the very name of three of which is known to but a few. How many of these republics have heard of, for example, of the commonwealth of Watauga, which in 1772 was organized as an independent community by North Carolinians who had crossed the Alleghenies and descended into the basin of the Tennessee, had made themselves masters of the valley of the Watauga river? How many remember the commonwealth of Transylvania, which was organized in the eastern part of what is now Kentucky in 1775, and which sent to the Continental congress a delegate, who, however, was never admitted? How many have heard of the short-lived state of Franklin, or Frankland, which at a somewhat later period was self-created out of certain western counties of North Carolina?

WHAT IS A LADY?

A little while ago an English paper offered a prize for the best definition of a lady. This is the answer that took the prize:

"To be a lady means, rightly, to be a gentlewoman who shows by her every word and action a sweet and gentle manner; a woman whose heart is pure and true, who is tender toward all suffering, who sympathizes with those in trouble and is ever ready to give that which costs her some effort and self-denial. A lady thinks no work derogatory, and no one is deemed too low to receive courtesy and kindness. She is pure and good in every detail of life, a true friend, and a 'ministering angel' in sorrow and in sickness."

Could anyone give a better answer?

TOO MUCH SELFISHNESS.

The story is told of a little girl who was one day struggling with her sister for the possession of an umbrella. The mother said, "Daisy, give it to your sister. She has let you have it every day, and you must learn to give it up."

"But, mamma, I can't! There is no giveupness in me!" This little girl was honest at any rate. She stated facts as she felt them. A good many older people, if they were frank, would say much the same.

There ought to be a great deal of "giveupness" in us all. Many of the ills from which modern society suffers are due to the fact that so many people grasp all that they can get, and give up as little as possible.

FATE'S JOITS.

If Fate hands out a bump to you. Don't quit the game; There is no soft upholstered road To wealth or fame.

Keep plugging right along, and say When you fall flat: "Another job from Fate, but I Expected that."

A grin is better than a groan. Life's road is rough; But foits won't stop you if you're made of proper stuff.

OGDEN, UTAH.

Sacred Heart Academy. (Special Correspondence.)

An exceedingly pleasant surprise awaited the large number of interested persons who were present at Sacred Heart academy Thursday evening, December 22, to witness the annual Christmas entertainment. The keynote for the program was struck when Miss Grill, in a simple manner, gave the Xmas Greeting, and reiterated in the words of the poet the old, old story of "Bethlehem's Babe." This sentiment prevailed throughout, but was especially noticeable in the cantata entitled, "The Capture of Santa Claus." In this operetta the younger ones of the institution were given a splendid opportunity to display their ability in various ways, from the generous and kind-hearted old St. Nicholas to the amusing juggling-jacks and Brownie police toys whose home was in Santa's sack. Too much cannot be said of these little ones, this being the first appearance of many of them before the footlights of the public.

The remainder of the program was suggestive of the holiday season, and consisted chiefly of numbers, literary and musical. The reading by Miss Ruff was well received, and showed zealous labor as well as a comprehensive knowledge of this most difficult art. Miss Cook also received a hearty applause for the splendid interpretation she gave Myra Kelly's clever cantata, "Christmas Present for a Lady." The musical selections were well done, the chorus work especially showing vocalists of promising ability. When the final strains of the beautiful chorus, "We See the Seasons Changing," had died away, Rev. P. M. Cushman, in his usual earnest and eloquent manner, congratulated the gifted graduates and the dear little children upon the pleasure they had afforded not alone himself, but the large audience as well. He also endeavored to impress all with the true meaning of Christmas, and to urge each and every one to put aside, at least on this great day of days, all care and sorrow and to join with grateful hearts in the song the angels sang, "Glory to God in the Highest; Peace on Earth. Good Will to Men."

Ogden News.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Budge, who for the past two weeks have been the guests of Mrs. Ezra Rich, returned to their home in Idaho on Friday.

Among the Ogdenites who went to Salt Lake on Wednesday to attend the state teachers' convention were Misses Della Farmer and Bessie Callahan.

Misses Gladys and Lella Rich spent several days of last week in the capital city, visiting relatives and friends.

Arthur Fell, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Fell, is home from Boone's university at Berkeley, Cal., to spend the holiday season.

Don Maguire was in Salt Lake on Wednesday.

Kenneth Griffin, who is attending the University of California, returned home Friday to spend Christmas with his parents.

The Martha society, with their well-known generosity and solicitude for the poor, will give a Christmas concert on Saturday and Sunday distributing baskets of good things to over 100 needy families of this city. With what light hearts must these untrusting workers have gathered around the festive table, aglow with holly berries and Xmas warmth and joy, and with what satisfaction at least knowing that others less fortunate perhaps than they were also enjoying the delights of Christmas time, due to their thoughtfulness and magnanimity. How many homes were gladdened with the sunshine of love for the infant Christ, to think that they were permitted to celebrate in such a joyous manner, and gratitude to these noble women who made it possible for them to partake of the joys of the Yuletide!

Santa Claus Party.

Santa Claus played a prominent part in a very pretty party given by little Katherine Hassett, aged ten months, on last Saturday afternoon. Although arriving a little in advance of the appointed time, still old Santa's presence was no less welcome. The invitations, worded in the following manner: "I am expecting my first visit from Santa Claus. Come and help him unload his pack from 3:30 to 3:30 p. m." Needless to say, the seven invited guests did not require a second bidding.

The occasion was a most delightful one. The guests, who were dressed in their best, were seated around a table laden with refreshments. The party was a most successful one, and the guests were most enjoyable.
